Foreign Muslims return Water Sources Made to Mecca for Umrah Pilgrimage

Foreign Muslim pilgrims have been allowed into the Grand Mosque in Mecca for the first time since coronavirus restrictions were imposed seven months ago.

From first week of November, some 10,000 pilgrims from abroad were allowed to perform the Umrah pilgrimage, which Muslims can traditionally take at any time.

They had to self-isolate for three days after arriving in Saudi Arabia before being allowed to circle around the Kaaba - the holiest site the Grand Mosque.

Every Muslim is and collective lives in encouraged to study Seerah

Muslims believe that the life of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) is undoubtedly the best example of a life a human being could live. In Surah al-Ahzab Allah (SWT) says:

"Indeed there is an excellent example for you in the Prophet of Allah."

accordance with the Seerah of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in order to achieve a meaningful and respectful life here and the ultimate success hereafter. The best way to translate the way of life and mannerism of the Prophet (SAW) in our lives is the study the Seerah of the Prophet (SAW). In the following, a light shall be thrown on the meaning of Seerah in Islam and explained Covid-19 and 5,402 deaths since the pandemic started, and 333,842 recoveries. It is phasing the reopening of its mosques as part of a gradual easing of restrictions across the kingdom.

Saudi residents were allowed to perform the Umrah in October, and numbers were raised to accommodate pilgrims from abroad this month.

Only 10,000 Saudi Muslim residents were allowed to perform the annual Hajj pilgrimage in July this year, vastly down from the millions who have taken part in previous years.

Due to Covid '19, Muslims above the age of 50 years and below 18 years of age, are not allowed to perform Umrah.

Pilgrims arriving for Umrah have to quarantine themselves for 3 days before they can perform Umrah and hence should book hotels with all meals included for these 3 days.

medicine and to be able to serve the people in this area as well. All members of our team feel happy because after months of hard work, we were able to achieve this result," one of the team member said.

Although the ventilator still has to undergo final testing from health authorities before it can be used, officials welcome it in a country with only 800 ventilators to treat the fast-growing number of coronavirus cases in a health system damaged by decades of war.

Health Ministry spokesman said once the ventilators were approved they would be rolled out in Afghan hospitals and the design shared with the World Health Organization.

"We appreciate the initiative and creativity in Afghanistan's health sector...after they are approved, we will use these ventilators and we are determined to contract with companies so we can also export them," he said.

Afghanistan has recorded around 35,500 COVID-19 cases and 1,181 deaths, though experts warn the true count is probably far higher due to low testing rates.

The Water Supply Department of Baitussalam Welfare Trust has completed six more projects. The first project was completed at Shikarpur. There were several phases of this project. First phase consisted of an excavation of about 65 feet for well and then a construction of water storage tank To keep the water safe from the extreme heat of Sindh, a machine was also installed to cool the water and a solar system was also installed to run the entire system so that there would not be any difficulty in making water available at all times. The second project was in Goth Muhammad Bachal Nonari in the outskirts of Thal Tehsil. After establishing a well, a 600 feet long pipe was laid for provision of fresh water which is now benefiting around 12000 people.

A hand pump was installed in the village of Qasimabad, Faizgang after making a well which is providing water for irrigation.

A hand pump was also installed in the village of Ghulam Akbar Shar in Faizganj Tehsil of Khairpur District after making a well while in the village of Noorabad a hand pump was also installed in Qambar Shahdadkot after digging a well.

In Goth Sadhar village of Umarkot, an RO plant has also been set up to provide clean drinking water.

These projects cost about Rs. 300,000/-.

Also, the difference Rather, the story of our between Seerah and Hadith i.e. the Sunnah of the Prophet will also be elaborated.

The Seerah of the Prophet (SAW)

In this portion, we will, first of all, explain what Seerah literally means and then explain what is meant by the Seerah of the Prophet (SAW). Seerah literally means the conduct, the behavior, practice, attitude or the way of life. Also Seerah means the condition, state or the situation, shape, appearance or the aspect.

As far as the meaning of the Seerah of the Prophet (SAW) is concerned, it is the life of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) his interaction and behavior with his companions and his family members, his practice in his affairs as a leader of Muslims and head of an Islamic State, his dealings with non-Muslims both in the state of peace and war and his characteristics and mannerism. In a nutshell, any aspect or fact that is related to the life of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) is part of the Seerah.

Here a question might come to one's mind that is there any difference between the Sunnah and Seerah of the Prophet(SAW)? What is that difference if yes? Indeed, the Seerah of the Prophet (SAW) and the Sunnah of him are two different things. The Sunnah of the Prophet (SAW)

means the life story

of the Prophet (SAW).

One thing, however,

should be noted here

beloved Prophet (SAW) begins long ago. Many times, the Seerah of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) would begin from the time of Hazrat Ibrahim (AS) and his son Hazrat Ismail(AS). This is because the Seerah of Hazrat Muhammad (SAW) is not the life story of an ordinary man. Instead, it is the story of the greatest man of the history of mankind in which the cultural, social, religious, historical and political background of the society in which he would start his mission had to be elaborated in order to provide a complete picture of the mission of accomplishments of Hazrat Muhammad (SAW).

example the verse number 3 of the Surah al-Duha in which Allah Almighty says to the Prophet (SAW) that "Your lord has neither left you nor He is displeased with you". If one reads this verse in isolation from the Seerah, he fails to grasp any reasonable meaning out of this verse. But if this verse is read with or Hadith is anything the Seerah the context that is attributed to is there to provide the Prophet (SAW) be complete picture.
